

Vicar's Whore

VW 18

Frýdek-Místek, 11 May 2009

After a long winter season, Vicar's Whore has regrouped with several new, clearly enthusiastic members. There's Anna, who's not so sure about acting, but she can sew and is ready to break out her machine to make uniforms for Sally Carter. She also has a brother in Brno who knows something about set design. He's already been hired to run our Brno office. Katka is ready to bring her lithe figure and eternally young looks to the role of Sally. Ivana and Radana are colleagues from a school blessed by a bishop, so it's clear they both have a sense of humor. James will apply his artistic skills to web design and perhaps to the role of the preacher, who we all know has designs on Mrs. Carter. Then there's Karen, eight months pregnant but ready to take the stage any time before the first contractions come. We're already recruiting her baby for the role of Jesus in a possible Christmas production. Since she's due on June 22, we set November 22 as the date for our first Sally performance. It was also decided to go with just an English-language performance for now. If we pull it off, we can always go back to our original intention of a dual-language theatre. For now, a few tasks have to be taken care of:

- * Costumes (Martina). It would be good if we can have them available sometime in June for a photo shoot. Any sewing, please contact Anna.
- * Web design (James). We need something slick and eye-catching, at least beyond the limitations of Microsoft.
- * Venue (Petr). Frýdek-Místek is the preliminary choice, Radana and Katka will scout out other locations. Apparently the theatre in Bohumín has us on the black list.
- * More men (Katka, Ivana, Radana, Anna). We need somebody to move all the equipment around and drive the van.
- * Newsletter (Darren). Back in service as you can see. James will provide some better photography for the coming issues.
- * Your membership description. Send me what you want to put on the web site or I'll be happy to do it for you.

The next meeting is scheduled for 29 May, 7 PM, at James' place in White Woods. Bring your scripts because we will do a full reading of the play (in between mouthfuls of food and beer). See you then!
